Don't See Your Views Bypassed, Daniels Urges

Labor Candidate for Ryan Ross Daniels has urged everyone to have their say about the Western Bypass, right away.

"The Western Brisbane Transport Network Investigation starts soon, and it is important to make sure they get the terms of reference right," he said.

"Public submissions on the terms of reference for the Investigation close on 31 July."

Mr Daniels said that local residents need to be reassured that the terms of reference for the Investigation don't prejudge any particular outcome.

"I'm completely opposed to a Western Bypass through Brookfield and The Gap, and I want to make sure that the terms of reference for the Investigation properly look at all of the options," he said.

"The western suburbs of Brisbane need much improved public transport, and this Investigation is our change to get good solutions. We must make sure that this Investigation isn't all about one freeway in the wrong place."

Mr Daniels also said that the terms of reference would determine just how the community was consulted, and residents should have their say on this, too.

"Submissions on the terms of reference close on 31 July, so we all need to move quickly," he said.

"Making sure the terms of reference are right is the first step to stopping a freeway through Brookfield and The Gap."

Everyone can get a copy of the draft terms of reference by visiting www.wbtnti.net.au, e-mailing info@wbtnti.net.au, or phoning 1800 636 896.

"But move quickly – we've only got until 31 July to get this right," Mr Daniels said.
